

MISCELLANEOUS.

TO
I'd offer thee this heart of mine,
If I could love thee less;
But hearts are warm, as soft as thine, Should never know distress.
My fortune is too hard for thee,
I'd rather die than see thee free;
I'd rather die than see thee free,
Than win thee to destroy.

I leave thee in thy happiness,
As one too dear to love;
As one I'll think of but to bless, Whilst wretchedly I rove.
But oh! when sorrow's cup I drink, All bitter though it be,
How sweet to me 'twill be to think It holds no drop for thee.

JUDGE WHITE IS COMING.

AIR:—The Campbells are coming.
Judge White is coming, hurra! hurra!
Judge White is coming, hurra! hurra!
To check the mischief,
Of the Van Buren school,
Judge White is coming, hurra! hurra!

There's Alabama, Tennessee,
As pioneers of Liberty, Appealing to the brave and free Throughout this great confederacy.
Judge White is coming, &c.

Virginia too will be among The patriots as they move along,
And join her voice in the noble throng,
To swell the notes of the patriot's song.
Judge White is coming, &c.

Ye freemen all, in every State, Our objects to your good relate;
Come every man both small and great,
Come join our ranks and share our fate.
Judge White is coming, &c.

Our Banner's glad to see the sight,
'Twill give the patriot's heart delight, The name thereon is Hugh L. White;
And under it we'll boldly fight.
Judge White is coming, &c.

"They said so."—Ay, how many things does this they have to say; how many unhappy moments does this they cause many a poor fellow to spend. Ask who told some tale thus circulated by a town gossip,— "Why, they told me so." There it is; you are as much in the dark as ever. They must be a confounded old scoundrel, think you. "La, uncut Peggy, they say that young Mr. —, you know him, he is always at something bad, they say he has run off with Miss —, and—" You don't tell me so! who in all the world could have fabricated such a story!" "Oh, I can't tell, but I heard them say he was caught throwing sheep's eyes at her in church several times during service, and the folks all thought something would turn up." So the world goes; and many a young Miss and gentleman have thus had tales noised about them, which perhaps originated in a mere trifle, a mere nothing at all. You may rove all over town and inquire of every body you meet. Nobody knows, nobody can tell you any thing about it. All the folks say, "I heard them say so; I don't know, but I rather guess it's true, for they all say so." They say so—they told me so—I heard them say so—&c., may be relied on as the precursors of something not altogether straight, you may depend.

A COLORED DIALOGUE.

Mingo.—Well, Pomp, you for Bobali-tion yet?
Pomp.—No, Mingo, I've changed dat opinion. I've no notion rising all dese brack niggers to be as good as me.
Mingo.—Right, Pomp. I told you so before. But Pomp, who you go for President?
Pomp.—Mr. Van Buren, to be sure—who you for, Mingo?
Mingo.—I for him, too, Pomp. I go for him who'll go for me. Massa Van Buren, (Massa Tom Ritchie say in he paper,) in favor of de colored gentlemen voting. Dat suif for me, Pomp.
Pomp.—For me too, Mingo.

A young gentleman having occasion to ask a lady for the snuffers, across the table, addressed her in the following strain:—
"Most beautiful, accomplished, and charming lady! will your ladyship, by an unmerited and undeserved condescension of your infinite goodness, please to extend to your most obsequious, devoted, and very humble servant, that pair of ignipotent digests, that I may exasperate the excrecence of this nocturnal cylindric luminary, in order that the refulgent brightness of its resplendent brilliancy may dazzle the vision of our ocular optics more potently."

Died, in Salem, Massachusetts, George W. Mullett, aged 61, born without eyes, and known to many generations of boys and girls as one of the most sagacious and good tempered of blind men. He was for many years town crier—and was remarkable for the sonorous melody of his voice, the strength of his memory, and the unerring instinct with which he threaded his way through the most crowded avenues. He has frequently passed into the neighboring towns to a distance of 5 or 10 miles. He was a married man, with a considerable family of children, whom he always carried to school in infancy in a truckle cart. He boasted that his wife was the handsomest woman he ever saw.

A clergyman took for his text the following words: "Vow, and pay unto the Lord thy vows." An Indian heard him very attentionally, and stepping up to the person, thus addressed him, "I vow I'll go home with you, Mr. Minister." "You must go, then," replied the parson. The Indian afterwards vowed to have supper, and then stay all night. "You may," replied the clergyman, "but I now you shall go in the morning."

INTemperance is a monster changing the affections and hopes of man into hatred and dreaded anticipation—making the mother a widow, the child an orphan, the friend a miserable being—exchanging the abode of peace and plenty for pain and poverty—turning the midday of domestic bliss into the midnight of domestic wretchedness—clothing penury in darkness—wealth in rage—extinguishing the hopes of heaven and salvation, and in their place lighting up a flame of torment by a separation from God.

The Bank of Westminster, Md., has declared a dividend equivalent to 23 1/2 per cent for six months. The prosperity of the bank is ascribed to the celibacy of the Cashier, who makes the institution his pet, and devotes his powerful financial talent entirely to the duties to which he is so red-ded. He likes the coinage of eagles better than the multiplication of children to spend them, and prefers bank notes to the notes of squalling brats.—N. Y. Star.

Effects of Leap Year.—Encouragement bonds" of matrimony on Thursday evening last in this city, by the Rev. Mr. LaChase, years, to Mrs. Mary Comstock of Putnam county, aged 75 years, late widow of Dan.

nial altar.—[Barnstable Journal.

A parishoner complained to his parson that his pew was too far from the pulpit, and that he must purchase one nearer.— "Why," said the parson, "cant you hear distinctly?" "O yes, I can hear well enough." "Cant you see plainly?" "Yes, I can see perfectly well." "Then what can be the trouble?" "Why, there are so many in front of me, who catch what you say first, that by the time your words reach my ears they are as flat as dishwater."—

A fair business transaction.—A fellow was engaged to a girl in Maine, but liked her sister better than he did her. Wishing to be off with the old love before he was on with the new, he asked his betrothed what she would take to release him—she replied that about sixty two dollars, she thought, was as much as he was worth; whereupon he ponied up the dust, took a quiet claim, and married the sister.—Boston Post.

War in Charlotte!

Spring and Summer GOODS.

A. SPRINGS has recently received, and has now open, a handsome and fancy assortment of Spring and Summer Goods, purchased by himself for Cash only,—the majority of which was selected out of the packages as they arrived from Liverpool; also, a good assortment of Hardware & Cutlery, Crockery & Chinaware, Hats and Bonnets, Ladies & Gentlemen's Shoes, Sugar & Coffee of a superior quality, Molasses, Salt, Nails, &c.

A few of the leading articles of which he will state the prices, viz: Sugar at 6 lbs. for a dollar; Coffee 5 1/2; Molasses 75 cts. per gal.; Salt $1.50 per bush.; Nails 10 cts. per lb. He earnestly invites his friends and neighbors and passers-by, to call and hear prices, and judge for themselves. He is determined to sell as low as any Country Store in the County. In fact, he will not be undersold if he is apprized of it. A credit until the 1st of January will be given to solvent dealers.

All kinds of COUNTRY PRODUCE will be taken, at a fair price, in Barter for Twenty Dollars Reward.

TAKEN, on the 4th instant, from the subscriber, seventy-one dollars—there were 20 silver Spanish dollars—three French Crowns—29 eagle halves, 15 quarteas—1 ten dollar bill, 3 five dollar bills—1 two dollar bill, and 1 three dollar bill, and about 15 cents in change. The money had been deposited by my wife in an old tan yard almost fifty yards from my house, for the purpose of putting it out of my reach; and in about a quarter of an hour after it was placed there, it was taken by some person unknown.
If the person who has the money will return to me fifty dollars, through the Post Office, he may keep the balance.

DYSPEPSIA AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.

THE PATENT VEGETABLE MEDICINE STOMACHIC ET HEPATICE, formed by chymical analysis and synthesis of several proximate vegetable principles, are universally acknowledged to have totally eclipsed the pretensions of every other remedy, and superceded the necessity of every other mode of treatment wherever the above diseases are found to exist, as well as in enlargement of the Spleen and in Jaundice.

Among the symptoms of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, are flatulency, sourness or burning in the stomach, melancholy, irritability, disagreeable taste in the mouth; great irregularity of appetite, which is sometimes voracious, and at other times greatly deficient: thirst, fetid breath, nausea, weakness of the stomach, acid eructations, palpitation, drowsiness, irregularity of the bowels, pressure on the stomach after meals, pain in the head, dizziness or vertigo, confusion of mind, attended with loss of memory, a gnawing in the stomach when empty, chilliness, affection of sight and hearing, pain and weakness in the back, languor, disturbed sleep, cold feet and hands, tremor, uneasiness in the throat, cough, pain in the side or breast, &c.

DR. PETERS'

Vegetable Anti-Bilious Pills, Are the cheapest and most approved Family Medicine ever offered to the Public.

They are extremely mild in their operation, neither causing sickness of the stomach, nor any unpleasant sensation in the system, as is too frequently the result from medicines given to act upon the bowels. They act specifically upon the Liver, when in a torpid condition, carrying off a large quantity of bile, through the influence of the excrement function, which, if suffered to remain in the system, would produce either Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, or some other grievous bodily afflic-tion. In all cases of torpor of the bowels, they act like a charm. In recent cases of Dyspepsia, they are a certain cure. Many persons who were subject to violent attacks of sick head-ache, have been much benefited, and several perfectly cured in a few weeks by their use. They are highly recommended as a preventative and cure of Bilious complaints. Persons who are subject to that distressing complaint, sea-sickness, by taking a portion or two of them a few days previous to embarking on board the vessel, will be almost certain to escape it. Females can use them at all periods, without incurring any risk. Their virtues will remain unimpaired for years in any climate. No family should be without these Pills; a portion of them, taken occasionally, would be the means of preventing much suffering from sickness. It is from neglect of keeping up a regular peristaltic action of the stomach and bowels, thus suffering to be absorbed and mingled with the blood, unassimilated fluids, that most diseases are produced.
Dr. P. feels confident that no person who gives these Pills a fair trial, will ever after feel willing to be without them. The testimony of thousands speaking in the highest terms of their efficacy, might be added, but the very high reputation Dr. P. has acquired as the inventor of the "Patent Vegetable Medicine Stomachic et Hepatice," for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, is thought a sufficient guarantee to those wishing to make a trial of their virtues. They contain not a particle of Mercury, or any ingredient that does not act in harmony with health and oppose disease.

Dr. P. having been educated under the most eminent American and European Medical professors, and practiced his profession many years in the South, where diseases of the most obstinate character prevail, considers himself well qualified to judge on the nature of diseases incident to warm climates.

Prepared by JOSEPH PRIESTLY PETERS, M. D. P. B. C. P. M. at his Institution for the cure of Obsolete Diseases, by means of vegetable remedies, No. 129 Liberty-street, New York, inventor and sole proprietor.
Each box contains forty Pills. Price 50 CENTS.

These invaluable Medicines are sold in Charlotte by Smith & Williams; in Concord by P. B. Barringer, and in Salisbury by John Murphey, where numerous certificates of their efficacy can be seen.

HAVING received from N. York the latest Spring and Summer Fashions, inform their friends that they are now ready to execute all orders in their line with neatness and despatch.—
They take this opportunity of returning their grateful acknowledgments for the liberal share of public patronage with which they have been favored.
They think it not presumption to say, they are better prepared to give more general satisfaction than heretofore. To secure confidence, they solicit a fair trial. If misfit should ever occur, it is made good by the cash or a second trial at their own expense.

A Splendid Line of HACKS, FROM Salisbury to Raleigh, N. C.

THE SUBSCRIBERS, anxious to afford every facility to the Travelling Public, now announce that they have completed all their arrangements, and can with truth say, We present you with a Line of Hacks possessing advantages over any other, if you wish to get on with ease and despatch—having obtained that great desideratum with all Travellers—no detention on the road. It is so arranged as to correspond, in its arrivals at Raleigh, with the departure of the following stages, viz: The Great Daily Line to Blakely, North Carolina, passing through Louisburg, Warrenton, and Hal-fax; at the latter place a Line of Stages communicates with the Portsmouth Railroad for Norfolk: by continuing on to Blakely, you strike the Petersburg Railroad; and on your arrival at that place you have the choice of two Lines—either by land to Washington City, via Richmond and Fredericksburg, or by Steam-Boat to Norfolk.
At Norfolk there will be no detention, as there is a line of Steam-Boats for Baltimore in connexion with this line. This line also connects with one from Raleigh to Newbern.

Leaves the Mansion Hotel, Salisbury, TUESDAY and SATURDAY at 9 o'clock, A. M.—after the arrival of the Piedmont Stage from the South—arrives in Raleigh next days at 9 o'clock, P. M.—Leaves Raleigh TUESDAY and SATURDAY at 2 o'clock, A. M., arrives in Salisbury next days by 4 o'clock, P. M.—allowing sufficient time on the road for SLEEP.

The Hacks are Albany make, entirely new, and cannot be surpassed for comfort and ease; the Teams are excellent, the Drivers careful and attentive, and the Fare for —only SEVEN DOLLARS. All intermediate distances 7 cents per mile.

Passengers from the South, who wish to take our Line, will be careful to enter at Salisbury only.

All Duplicates and Packages at the risk of the owners.
